

I was proud to be known as a fiscal watchdog who stood up for taxpayers when I was an Edmonton city councillor from 2010-2013.

Today more than ever, Edmonton needs fiscal conservatives on city council.

I've met with Tish Prouse and he's an avowed fiscal watchdog who comes from a business background.

I also know Tish to be someone who listens to his would-be constituents. He was the only city council candidate to attend and address a city hall rally organized by the Chinese community who are concerned they've not been adequately consulted about four planned supervised drug injection sites.

He cared and he listened. That's what good politicians are supposed to do. But some politicians seem to forget that.

If you'd like someone who cares, listens and promises to be your fiscal watchdog, consider supporting Tish as your councillor for Ward 6.

Sincerely,
