This is a short letter of endorsement for Tish Prouse.

I have known Mr. Prouse for over ten years. Our relationship has been mostly professional but also, I would say, personal. I find Mr Prouse to be of exceptional character and he also has a disarming personality that is enjoyable to be around.

I believe he would be an asset to any organization and certainly we would be fortunate to have him in service to the public. He has a worldly view and a youthful fresh perspective on issues.

Having known him and his family for several years I can say that he bears his true soul to the world and is honest and transparent in any discussion. If his opinion differs from yours he's happy to explain why in a thoughtful, polite way. In these times of polarizing opinions which most people seem to defend with more emotion than information Tish is a refreshing example of how we all should be able to discuss issues.

Sincerely yours,

Darrell J. Morin B.Sc., D.C.
